ABOUT DJ JAMES REASE

James Rease is a French DJ and producer, originally from Saint-Étienne (France). He grew up immersed in various musical influences, including funk, disco and soul, which he fuses with more modern genres such as electro house and Techno. His style is often described as eclectic and dynamic, which allows him to stand out on the French and international electronic scene.

He started out as a club DJ where he honed his skills playing a wide range of music. What sets him apart is his talent for reinterpreting classic tracks by giving them a modern twist, through remixes and original mashups. He draws a lot of inspiration from the French electronic scene, while integrating global sounds. James Rease is particularly known for his creative mashups and remixes, incorporating elements of music « made in France ».

NEW RELEASES

James Rease is a complete artist, active in the field of electronic music. He has built a solid reputation on the French and international music scene and his career has really taken off with his appearances in renowned clubs and international festivals. He is particularly appreciated for his ability to fuse classics from the 70s and 80s with current electronic rhythms, creating a musical experience that is both nostalgic and innovative. He is a regular on streaming platforms such as YouTube and SoundCloud, where he publishes mixes, mashups, and remixes. In addition to his live performances, James Rease is also active in the studio, with several albums and EPs to his credit, his recent works include collaborations with other artists, as well as performances where he mixes techno, electro, house and more retro elements. Very present on social networks, he also shares moments of his tours and new musical releases.
